The orders of the juvenile court leaving open the issue of restitution in the prior burglary petition and its finding that Jose was not an individual with special needs are reversed. The juvenile court is directed to forward an amended commitment order to CYA indicating Jose is an individual with special needs who has been a special education student since second grade and that he met the criteria for a seriously and emotionally disturbed person pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 5600.3. The judgment of the juvenile court is otherwise affirmed.
